

LUXURY

LUXURY MAGAZINE

SUMMER 2018

Hotels

The 1,900-square-foot, two-bedroom Presidential Suite at The Langham Hotel, New York, has been reimagined by Roche Bobois, whose name is synonymous with high-end, custom-made European furniture. Expect a sculptural and dramatic private-home look with Rive Droite beds, Bijoux side tables, and sheets by Privilegio Milano. From $15,000. langhamhotels.com

On a quiet peninsula overlooking a crescent-shaped beach, the 35-room Katikies Mykonos (sister property to Katikies Santorini) opens this summer. Besides the infinity pools, sunbathing decks, and alfresco dining, the hotel provides 24-hour concierge service from anywhere on the island through a hotel-provided mobile phone. From $800. katikies.com

Just when you think accommodations in Las Vegas can't get any more exclusive, Aria Sky Suites and Sky Villas (below) up the ante. A hotel-within-a-hotel, stays in the one- or two-bedroom custom-furnished suites include complimentary luxury car service from the airport, private check-in, and exclusive Sky Pool access. The Sky Villas are one- to two-story retreats resembling upscale private estates with butler service and panoramic windows high above The Strip. From $775. aria.com

A SENSE OF PLACE

Rosewood is launching several new hotels in 2018 and extensively renovating others. Cambodia's Rosewood Phnom Penh opened in February with rooms overlooking the mighty Mekong River and is close to the capital city's mystical temples. Set in a thick forest with dramatic waterfalls, Rosewood Luang Prabang in Laos launched with 23 ultra-luxe rooms, tents, and villas in March. Rosewood Bermuda reopened in April after a $25 million renovation with breezy, English-colonial rooms and a chic new Beach Club restaurant. Rosewood Hong Kong in the heart of Victoria Dockside is slated to open in late 2018, and Rosewood Miramar Beach Montecito will have right-on-the-sand suites when the Santa Barbara, California-adjacent hotel opens in January. rosewoodhotels.com

The Berkeley, a discreet London retreat for royalty and celebrities, reopens after a major renovation. The Collins Room restaurant debuts in elegant shades of pearl gray and silver. Glass-walled, two-bedroom Pavilion suites by Hong Kong architect André Fu have big-city views. From $730. the-berkeley.co.uk

Tucked away one block from the Boston Common, XV Beacon Hotel (above) is a boutique gem with impeccable service. Built in 1903 and designed by renowned Boston architect William Gibbons Preston, each of its 63 rooms features a gas fireplace, espresso machine, and Frette linens. The hotel's eclectic art collection greets guests throughout and its Mooo Restaurant features prime steaks so tender a butter knife is all that's needed. The Maine lobster mac and cheese is a must. From $400. xvbeacon.com

The largest chateau in France's Loire Valley, Château de Chambord has opened a charming 55-room hotel in an expanded 19th-century farmhouse on the estate. Guests of Le Relais de Chambord have the entire 13,500 acres of gardens and vineyards to themselves once the property closes to visitors. From $160. relaisdechambord.com

Renovated and reimagined by Studio Collective, the historic, 1920s Hotel Figueroa opened in downtown Los Angeles in February. Unique to the hotel are the signature suites: One has a secret passageway leading to the hotel's cocktail-focused Bar Alta; others have private terraces overlooking Figueroa Street. From $265. hotelfigueroa.com

A 42-room hotel in repurposed historic (1895) military barracks, the Lodge at the Presidio opens this summer in San Francisco's Presidio. Spectacular nighttime views of the Golden Gate Bridge and the city. Twenty-four miles of hiking trails. From $275. presidio.gov/lodging >

